

Young Construction Executives' Club (YCEC) was established in 1994 to ensure that a viable network is developed for future generations of construction management.

Mission Statement

The objective of the YCEC is to develop an informal communication network amongst young future executives (under 35 years) in order to:

- Promote networking relationships within the construction industry.
- Develop a forum to establish industry contacts and leads.
- Provide information and industry activities and opportunities that will enhance and profit the individual and their respective company.
- Provide an opportunity for members to invest in their employees' development as the next generation of construction executives.
- Leadership Development.

Here's how we accomplish our objectives:

Educational Lunch Bag & Breakfast Sizzlers seminar series. Past topics include:

- Useful Blackberry Tips
- Construction Labour HR Systems
- Construction Criminal Law
- Solar Thermal Technology
- Tax Saving Strategies
- GPS Fleet Tracking

Annual Construction Day:

- Special project by YCEC volunteers to give back to the community
- Provides recognition to the industry, the association and the volunteers.

Building contacts through networking events such as:

- Golf Tournament
- Family Skate
- Poker Night
- Bonspiel Curling
- Pub Night
- Annual Tree Planting
- Bi-annual Working Weekend, Delawana Inn, Honey Harbour
- Food Drive

The Club currently has over 370 members and they meet four to six times a year

There are no fees to belong to YCEC. The club has only two restrictions:

1. Individuals must be under 35 years of age
2. Must be employees of TCA member companies
